Advent: A Season of Hope and Renewal

As we begin the holy season of Advent, the Church invites us into a time of watchfulness, reflection, and joyful expectation for the coming of Christ.

In the spirit of the Jubilee Year proclaimed by Pope Francis last year and set to conclude this December, our Diocese is launching a matching financial campaign for parishes called, Multiply the Hope.

Once our parish has fulfilled all of its financial obligations (annual budget + our together in action goal) for the year, every additional dollar contributed to reduce our parish loan will be matched dollar-for-dollar, up to our parish goal.

Even after the Jubilee year concludes on December 28 this year, the Diocese has extended this campaign to the end of 2027, giving us additional time to reach our parish goal.

Our goal for this matching program is $366,115.00. This means that every contribution toward this goal has twice the impact, allowing our parish to move forward with greater freedom in strengthening the renewal priorities.

As we enter this Advent season, we invite you to pray, to reflect, and to respond generously. Together, let us prepare a strong, welcoming parish home for all who seek Christ. May this season of expectation fill us with hope, and may God complete the good work He has begun in us.

Find out more about this campaign at www.catholicyy.ca/multiplythehope

ATTENTION: Our Evening Mass & Confession Schedule has been modified to accommodate school liturgies & concerts, and on the following evenings there will be NO Mass or Confession. Dec 3, Dec 4, Dec 9, Dec 10 or Dec 11.

ADVENT AT ST. ALBERT THE GREAT

Advent has a twofold nature: It prepares us for Christmas, when we recall Christ's first coming among us, and it is also a time when we look forward to his second coming at the end of the ages. Advent is a season of joyful expectation (see GNLY, no.39.) During Advent, each Sunday's Gospel reading has a specific focus. The Old Testament readings, especially those taken from Isaiah, are prophecies about the Messiah and messianic times. The selections from the writings of the Apostles present exhortations and instructions on different themes of this season. *Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops Ordo 2025/2026

Join us for an Advent Renewal Diocesan Retreat Sat, Dec 6, from 9:30 am to 12:30 pm in our Church Hall. Enter into the holy season of Advent with a renewed spirit of listening. Join Archbishop Terrence Prendergast for a reflective diocesan retreat on how the living Word of God shapes our hearts for discipleship and mission. Parishioners are invited to gather in person in our parish to participate together, as Archbishop Prendergast joins through livestream.

Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas. Come to our Advent Penitential Service December 12th after 6:30 pm Holy Mass and rejoice in God's Mercy! Can't make our penitential service? No problem, visit: https://www.catholiccyc.ca/news.html#start_date=2025-12-01 to see the diocese schedule.

First Friday Devotion We have First Friday Holy Hour coming up on Friday December 5th, to honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This will happen following the evening Mass, from 7-8pm. We will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Confession, and Prayer Ministry!

St. Albert the Great Parish the Stampede City Mixed Chorus is gearing up for this year's performance!

When: Saturday, December 6 at 7:30 pm.

Admission is also free though a donation to the SATG St. Vincent de Paul Society would be much appreciated (cash or food items). You will have time to go to the 5 pm mass, grab a bite to eat somewhere and then return in time for the show which is less than 90 minutes long. This year's show will have over 50 performers singing in 4-part acappella. It's also a very family friendly event so you'll still be able to make it home by shortly after 9 pm. The show itself will be very loosely based on the poem "The Night Before Christmas".

HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION

CELEBRATION: A holy day of obligation is a type of solemnity. In the Church, solemnities are special days when there is a deeper opportunity to reflect on a particular mystery of the faith or remember a particular saint. At their core, these holy days are celebrations, not obligations. The Church is inviting the faithful to celebrate!

Holy days of obligation are feast days on which Catholics are required to attend Mass and to avoid (to the extent that they are able) servile work. The faithful go to Mass on these days to rejoice. The Church invites the faithful to Mass on these holy days to recall that there is a reason to rejoice - "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life." (John 3: 16.) From this perspective, holy days of obligation are a gift. The faithful take a step back from preoccupations to remember what is true, good, and beautiful. And it is a day of obligation so the celebration at the Mass extends to the whole day.

OBSERVANCE: The observance of Holy Days of Obligation is part of the Sunday Duty, the first of the Precepts of the Church. The five precepts of the Catholic Church are:

1. Attend Mass on Sundays and days of obligation.
2. Confess your sins at least once a year.
3. Receive the Eucharist at least once a year.
4. Observe days of fasting and abstinence.
5. Provide for the needs of the Church.

HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION IN CANADA: Canada has two holy days of obligation: Christmas and Mary, Mother of God. The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB) has decreed that the Holy Days of obligation to be observed in Canada in conformity with canon 1246 §2 of the Code of Canon Law, are as follows:

- January 1, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God; and
- December 25, the Solemnity of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

The feasts of the Epiphany, the Ascension, the Holy Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) are transferred to the following Sunday.

BAPTISM VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Are you looking for a way to help/volunteer but don't have a great deal of time to commit? We have the perfect ministry for you! We need a few more helpers for our baptism ministry. Time required would be less than 2 hours every 4 weeks (or less if we get some more help). This ministry would involve greeting families arriving to have their child/children receive the beautiful sacrament of baptism; showing the families to their seats, and assisting the presiders as needed.

Group baptisms take place at the church on most Saturday mornings at 10:30 am. Your time commitment would be from about 10:00 am to 11:30 am. This ministry is suitable for adult singles, couples or even a parent/child team. If you are interested, or would like more information, please contact Rosanna at the church office: 403.257.6054, ext. 225 or baptisms@stalbertthegreat.ca

DID YOU KNOW?

We have a coat room located on the East side our Narthex. Parishioners are welcome to hang their coats during mass to make room for ample seating in the pews. With the cold weather upon us, please consider taking advantage of this under-utilized resource.

We did it! VICTORY—Thank You! The Liberal budget did NOT strip churches and pro-life organizations of their charitable status. The government backed away from two dangerous recommendations that would have removed charitable status from both religious institutions and pro-life organizations, recommendations that would have devastated the charitable sector in Canada. Many are breathing a real sigh of relief, but we are also giving thanks. Because this victory was not handed to us. It was won by the grace of God, by prayer, and through your action. *Jeff Gunnarson, Campaign Life Coalition
